World of Sport

By H. B. C.

The sports prophets who way back last spring predicted the Yankees and the Cincinnati Reds would end the season as champions have been vindicated. The New York team proved to be even more wonderful than expected but the boys from the Ohio state had a hard struggle to hold the position when near the goal posts. And as we go to press today we hear the radio giving to America the first game in the World Series. You may have made up your mind that the Yankees will win in view of their superiority over other teams in the American League. It has happened before that big upsets have appeared, some one player jumping into the role of hero.

It is a long way down to Wichita, Kansas, and the group of pretty ladies from that city came all the way by auto full of hope that they would this time take the coveted Underwood Trophy back with them. Somehow the Grads have been even better than expected, producing a higher average of skill than against weaker teams. The free-throw competition between Etta Dan and the Goliath of the Wichita team proved highly entertaining for the fans. So far the Kansas girl has shown that she knows her hoop, for she has kept ahead of the Grad expert.

WAINWRIGHT PRESBYTERY YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONVENTION

A young people's convention taking in all the young people concerned in the Wainwright Presbytery from To-field to Wainwright, will be held in Viking on October 21 and 22. The convention will largely follow the same procedure as the one for last year except for two alterations. It will open on Saturday afternoon and conclude on Sunday evening. The young people will be glad to hear that Rev. Horace Burkholder will again this year be the chief speaker. In addition, it is expected that another outside speaker will be available for the banquet on Saturday evening. The latter will also take part in the Sunday morning service. A full program of the convention will appear in the next issue of this paper. The Viking young people are making arrangements for the billeting of all young people coming from other towns who may wish to stay over for the next day. A larger number even than last year is expected. All young people should make preparations to attend this rally. Watch for further announcements. — Wainwright Pres. Y.P. Executive

WEDDING BELLS

THOMAS-McCONNOCHIE

A wedding took place on September 27 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. N. Seton, Vancouver, B.C., when her niece, Norma McConnochie, R.N., became the bride of Mr. Oliver A. Thomas of Fallon Nevada, U.S.A. Rev. A. M. Trendell officiated and Miss Mary Muttart sang "Because" during the signing of the register. Dr. S. N. Wood proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded fittingly. After the reception the happy couple left in their car for Fallon, Nevada, where they will make their home.

The bride in this happy event formerly resided at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Seton and attended high school in Irma. Rev. Mr. Trendell was a former Anglican minister at Irma and Wainwright. Friends join with us in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Thomas the best of everything.

In every district there are farmers whose samples of grain classified as "A"—or very good—under the "Crop Testing Plan" tests.

These farmers, therefore, should have in their bins good true-to-variety seed available to their neighbors at reasonable prices.

The PERFECT Chewing Tobacco

A Worthy Cause

The stirring appeal which has been sounded during the past few months for financial support to ensure continued maintenance of Jack Miner's bird sanctuary in Eastern Canada should strike a responsive chord in the breast of every lover of wild life and of every true sportsman on the entire continent.

When it is remembered that Jack Miner at great personal sacrifice to himself and family, has done pioneer work in bird banding for a long period of years resulting in valuable information which has made conservation of game birds on present day scale possible, it is not too much to suggest that his work is deserving of recognition in a practical way, at least to the extent that will enable the work to be carried on. It would not be going too far afield to state that every sportsman in the United States and Canada owes him a debt beyond calculation.

The banding of ducks and geese by Jack Miner, and in later years by the Biological Survey of Washington, has revealed that there are three migration routes which the birds follow in their annual flights to and from their breeding grounds. One route lies east of the Mississippi, another west of the Mississippi to the Rocky Mountains and the third is along the Pacific Coast, west of the Rockies.

The ducks and geese banded by Jack Miner at Kingsville, Ontario, which is centrally located along the Great Lakes, are practically all reported shot east of the Mississippi with the exception of the odd bird which has strayed across to the western side of that big river.

It has been Jack Miner's sanctuary and his activities at Kingsville that have saved a breeding supply for hunters, and especially those who enjoy their sport in Southern Illinois and the junction of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers and eastward through to Carrick Sound, Lake Mattamuskeet and other winter quarters.

Benefitted Greatly

The band records compiled by Jack Miner over a long period of years prove that the sportsmen along the Atlantic Coast and in the Eastern United States benefit very little from the activities of the duck or goose population of Western Canada.

The great value of the Jack Miner's bird banding activities is that it has given the people of the United States and Canada indisputable records of the number and percentage of ducks and geese cared for by the famous Canadian bird sanctuary at Kingsville that are shot in the United States.

Jack Miner, as well as many other leading Canadian sportsmen, conservationists and public spirited citizens, feels that the sportsmen of the United States should, without hesitancy support him in a tangible way by raising sufficient funds to enable him to maintain his establishment and carry on his work.

At the present time hundreds of thousands of dollars are being spent in Western Canada by Ducks Unlimited, money which is raised in the United States to restore former breeding grounds and establish new ones in Western Canada to raise ducks for the American sportsmen to shoot. If it is possible to raise such large sum among the hunters of the United States for this new project, there should be a few thousand dollars available to assist Jack Miner whose activities have spelled success for nearly half a century.

In the winter of 1938 alone Jack Miner had a floating population of between 25,000 and 50,000 Canada geese for three months in the spring and three months in the fall, that were all fed by him and given a safe haven from the hunter's gun.

Last winter a flock of Canada geese number between 5,000 and 10,000 never entered the United States, remaining at the Kingsville sanctuary all winter. The increase from this flock alone will give the sportsmen in the United States this fall an opportunity to shoot an additional 10,000 to 25,000 geese.

Miner's Fortune Spent

With these facts in mind an appeal to American sportsmen to maintain the Jack Miner sanctuary should not fall on deaf ears.

The result of close contact with Jack Miner and his work over a period of many years, contributors can be assured that any assistance which can be given will not only be gladly accepted but will be expended to the greatest possible advantage. Jack Miner himself has spent his entire personal fortune on this work and has contributed his own time and that of his family to this great cause.

In a recent announcement it was pointed out that cheques should be made payable personally to Jack Miner, Kingsville, Ontario, and it was stated that to those who wish to secure a statement of actual financial conditions before large amounts are contributed, a sworn statement of the bank handling the account at Kingsville will be mailed.

Days of the pencilboard blackboard in Sudbury, Ont., may be numbered. When school opened pupils could write on yellow glass with purple chalk in the King George public school, most recent addition to Sudbury's school buildings. Quality Is Impaired

Story From Switzerland Confirms Report About German War Weapons

Switzerland produces most of her own guns, and it is reported that her anti-tank infantry gun is one of the most effective pieces of defensive machinery yet produced. Swiss papers reported an amusing incident recently which seems to confirm the report that Germany's dearth of raw material has seriously impaired the quality of her manufactures.

Not long ago, so goes the tale, the Swiss Army wished to place an order for a number of German tanks and several tanks were brought to Switzerland for demonstration. The German tank crews were so sure of their wares that they offered to remain in their machines during the trials, but the Swiss officers refused. When the tests were over the tanks were literally torn apart, to the relief of the German officers who had so narrowly escaped with their lives. New York Post.

Not So Very Good

Story About Herr Goebbels And Schoolboy Worth Repeating

Goebbels was paying a visit to a public school in order to see how his propaganda was affecting the youth of the country. He asked a small boy to quote from memory some patriotic greeting. The child replied: "Heil Hitler." "Quite right," said Herr Goebbels, "but there are other slogans. A second boy piped up: "Deutschland über Alles." "Fine, fine," said Goebbels, "but there are even more impressive ones." Whereupon the smallest boy in the class contributed: "Our people shall go on for ever." "Bravo," said Goebbels, "that's very good indeed! What's your name?" And the boy answered: "Isaac Levy."—Nebelspalter, Rorschach.

No Koala Bear Skins Are Being Exported From Australia

The Australian Press Union says publicly given in the United States to Australia's lovable native bear, the koala caused a demand for coats made from their skins and this led to reports that koala were being illegally killed here and their skins exported.

The Chief Secretary (Mr. Bailey) caused inquiries to be made and these revealed that the skins being used were exported in 1927 when, during an open season in Queensland, 600,000 were obtained by trappers. Since then the koala has been rigidly protected.

This will include community singing, solos and duets, readings and short lantern pictures that should prove of real interest to all. Everybody is invited to come and bring your visiting friends or relatives.

Another accident happened in this district on Monday, October 2nd, when the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Westley was struck by a car on Irma's main thoroughfare and thrown to the ground on his face. His injuries, however, were not serious and he is able to get around again. It is a very dangerous practice for children to play around on the main street, especially at this time of the year when there are so many cars and trucks on the move.

Thrift With Fish.

If you want to be thrifty, and whether we like to or not, most of us just have to be, buy whole fish, with head and tail left on. There are several valuable reasons for doing this. First, you can tell whether the fish is fresh or not. Full bright eyes and gills, firm fins and tail is a sure way of determining this important point. Secondly, the head, tail, bones and skin should be used to make fish stock and thus get extra value from your purchases. After washing fish thoroughly, cover the trimmings with cold water. Add salt, outside stalks of celery or celery leaves, onion, carrot, bay leaf and parsley if you happen to have all these on hand, and simmer gently for about an hour. Pour through a strainer. From this stock, using Canadian salmon, halibut or cod, the following delicious soups can be made.

TO MAKE A VEGETABLE SOUP

3 quarts of fish stock
2 large carrots
1 large turnip
2 large onions
Outside stalks of celery finely minced
Prepare carrots, turnip, onions, and string the outside stalk of celery. Mince all very finely with a French knife on a board. Cover with boiling water seasoned with salt and simmer until tender. Heat the soup stock, then add the vegetables together with the water in which they were cooked. It may then be thickened with flour and water stirred smooth or with cooked rice or barley.

RICE TOMATO SOUP WITH FISH STOCK

1 quart of fish stock
1 cup of tomato
1 cup of cooked rice
1 tbs. of tomato catsup, or
1 tbs. Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper
Heat the fish stock. Add the strained tomatoes. Add the cup of boiled rice. Allow all to boil up together and season; may be thickened if desired.
